Crystal: Kunzite

This is a wonderful stone that comes in pink and green. Kunzite is a gentle healer.

We are creatures of light first, though with concrete below and around us we are disconnected from our Earth Mother. With the EMF signals that saturate towns and cities we are then disconnected from the Universe.

We all have light and dark and we need that balance within ourselves. Pain and betrayal are the sharpest of swords and this kind of damage goes deeply within. It's these types of pain that are healed over leaving that seed of pain that darkness grow from.

The negative or the darker side should not preside over your light and yet when we have unresolved pain this is what happens: we hate ourselves and don't champion our light.

Kunzite will help heal the pain you hold within and transform it to light.

In perfect union with our true self we become a conduit of light, we connect with the stars and Gaia.

Green Kunzite – also known as Hiddenite, will heal the pain that has gone unrecognised. Will clear those rocks that stand in the way between lower and higher self.

Pink Kunzite will heal and transform the shadows and illusions that you hold of yourself.

Goddess Moon

The Cycle of the Moon

The Moon glows in the night sky reflecting the Sun in all his glory, just as we each reflect the Moon in our individual way.

It is through the Moon that we reflect our feelings, in such a way that we have the opportunity to feel Her different shifts and shapes of her cycle.

The Moon gives us a chance to not only tap into her energy but also to resonate with her energy.

Each new Moon brings a new impulse that she brings as a seed to feel and grow.

The whole idea is for us to understand just how we each feel in such a way we can then become more conscious raise our vibrations and become at one with our Sun signs. Cycle by cycle we are given the chance to expand our emotional cycle. ~ Val.

Grace Cooke

Was a great Medium and channelled the teachings of the Great White Brotherhood through White Eagle from 1936 and continued until 1976.

Grace gives accounts of two of her past lives in this book 'The Illumined Ones'.

One in ancient South America where White Eagle is her father and one in Egypt. I love the detail and beauty that she gives us in her first account. This gives details of the Great White Brotherhood, initiations, crystals and their properties.

The Egyptian Life shows how light and truth will always find a way forward.
